Confidentiality of Enrolment Records

The approved provider of the Service must ensure that the information in the child’s enrolment record is not divulged or communicated, directly or indirectly, to another person other than as prescribed under Regulations 181 and 182 of the Education and Care Services National Regulations 2011. This includes, to the extent necessary for the education and care of the child or medical treatment of the child, or where expressly authorised, permitted or required to be given by or under any Act of law; or with the written consent of the person who provided the information.

Lawful Authority

Parents
All parents have powers and responsibilities in relation to their child that can be changed by a Court Order. The Children’s Services Education and Care Services National Law Act 2010 and Regulations 2011 refer to these powers and responsibilities as “lawful authority”. It is not affected by the relationship between the parents, such as whether or not they have lived together or are married. A Court Order, such as under the Family Law Act, may take away the authority of a parent to do something or may give it to another person.

Guardians
A Guardian of a child also has lawful authority. A Legal Guardian is given lawful authority by a Court Order. The definition of “Guardian” under the Children’s Services Act 1996 also covers situations where a child does not live with his or her parents and there are no Court Orders. In these cases, the Guardian is the person the child lives with who has day-to-day care and control of the child.

Services are reminded of their requirement to comply with the Information Privacy Act 2000 which requires a Privacy Collection Statement to accompany any Enrolment form.
